

Lowcountry Phi Beta Kappa Association

Invites you to

An Evening at the American College of Building Arts

649 Meeting Street

(In the 1897 "Trolley Barn," just north of the Ravenel Bridge overpass)

Monday, October 9

The ABCA is America's only four-year private liberal arts nonprofit college dedicated to educating artisans with the skills to create with their hands, reason with their minds, and contribute to and preserve our world's architectural treasures. Join us for a behind-the-scenes tour of their remarkable shops and collections, with works of forged iron, masonry, plaster, stone, and architectural carpentry on display. Welcome from President Colby Broadwater.

Hors d'oeuvres and drinks (wine, beer, soft drinks)

6:00 p.m.

$20 per person

Reservations must postmarked by Oct. 2
